

Mitchell Plant Provides 17,000 tons of Cement for Lloyd's Expressway in Indiana

Lehigh Cement Company supplied 17,000 metric tons of Type I Portland cement for a three mile section of the Lloyd Expressway in Indiana. The Mitchell cement plant, located about 100 miles of Indianapolis, produced the cement to specification. Indiana Department of Transportation oversaw the job near Evansville, Indiana.