Assistant Plant Manager from Mitchell, IN Finishes in Top 2% of the NYC Marathon

Henrik Wesseling, Assistant Plant Manager at Mitchell, participated in the New York Marathon on November 5, 2006 and finished with excellent results.

Henrik ran the 26 mi., 385 yds. distance in 2:56:51 and made it to place 648 out of 37,000 runners. He is within the best 2% of all the participants.

Not only that, he beat Lance Armstrong, 7 time winner of the Tour de France and arguably the best cyclist in the world, by almost 3 minutes (Lance Armstrong's time: 2:59:36).

Henrik's average pace over the 26 miles plus was an impressive 6:45 minutes/mile.

Triumphant Henrik Wesseling after finishing in the top 2% of the New York City Marathon.
